

PRIVACY POLICY FRAME VASTGOED

When you visit this website, Frame can, both directly (via a request for information to you) and indirectly, collect personal data about you. Frame will only use this personal data in accordance with the purpose described in this Privacy Policy and will do everything in its power to protect the collected personal data. This Privacy Policy describes the purposes of data processing by Frame in relation to this website, the use of cookies and the way in which you can exercise your rights with respect to your personal data.

Purposes of Data Processing

Frame collects and processes data about customers and visitors of this website for the benefit of its business operations, to bring products and services to the attention and make available that may be of interest to you and to develop web statistics. The information you provide will be used to contact you, where necessary, for example to inform you about changes to the functionality of the website or to offer you services on which you may be interested in (unless you have indicated that you do not want to receive offers of services).

Cookie policy

Frame may collect and analyze information associated with the use of this website, such as domain name, the number of hits, which pages have been visited, previous/next visited sites and the duration of a user session. This data can be collected via cookies. A cookie is a small text file containing relevant information that our web page server can extract from your browser. Our web page server may only request cookies that relate to the information that has been exchanged between you and Frame via the internet. Cookies that do not contain security-sensitive information can be stored on your hard disk in such a way that they are available during a subsequent internet visit. You can allow or prevent the use of cookies by changing the settings of your browser. If you want to prevent the use of cookies, the information in question will no longer be stored by your browser and with every internet visit the data will be requested and must be entered. The settings regarding cookies differ per browser.
